Not illustrated. 1901 Excerpt: .If any year thereafter any such corporation shall employ an increased amount of its capital stock within this State the same license fee is payable upon any such increase. The only penalty for not paying this tax is, that, until the certificate is issued, the corporation cannot sue in the courts of the State. In actual practice this tax is avoided by many small corporations, which do not deem it necessary to pay the tax until they are required to sue in the courts of the State. Banking, fire, marine, casualty and life insurance companies, co-operative fraternal insurance companies and building and loan associations are exempt from this tax. ( 181.) ANNUAL FRANCHISE TAXES. With a few exceptions, all corporations, domestic and foreign, doing business in this State, are required to pay an annual franchise tax to the State. Some corporations required to pay this annual franchise tax are subject to the payment of an additional franchise tax. By reason of the exceptions and the additional taxes the law is somewhat complicated. In order that the law may be explained most clearly and simply, a statement will be made, setting forth: First. The corporations that are subject to the ordinary franchise tax imposed by Section 182, and a description of the tax. The corporations subject to this ordinary franchise tax are railroads and other Transportation and Transmission corporations, except those taxed by Sections 185 and 180, and nearly all Business corporations. Second. The corporations subject to...
